Premier accommodation

This delightful bungalow is situated at the end of a group of three and has benefited from a substantial extension to the bedroom and sitting room. Beautifully located, with a lovely view across the pond and within easy access to the main Georgian house. This is excellent accommodation, ideal for a couple.

Well appointed with plenty of cupboard space. Its fully equipped good sized kitchen allows for some self catering although the main meal is provided within the monthly fees (see website for details).

Offering an added element of independence yet benefiting from the support that is available. This bungalow provides a delightful home in a unique and caring establishment.
